JACK R. ROBINSON SUMMARY
Born: January 31, 1919
Cairo, Georgia

No investigation pertinent to your inquiry has been conducted by the FBI concerning the captioned individual. However, the files of this Bureau reflect the following information which may relate to the subject of your name check request.

The June 1, 1946, issue of "People's Voice" contained an article and photograph of Jackie Robinson, reflecting that Jackie Robinson, the first negro to break into organized baseball, had accepted chairmanship of the New York State organizing committee for United Negro and Allied Veterans of America (UNAVA). The "People's Voice," dated June 15, 1946, contained a picture of four officials of the New York State Chapter of the UNAVA at a closing session of a two-day organizing conference. In the group was Jackie Robinson, listed in the caption of the picture as Honorary State Commander. (100-344537 Sub A)

The "People's Voice" has been cited by the California Committee on Un-American Activities, report, 1948, as "among publications which the committee found 'to be Communist initiated and controlled, or so strongly influenced as to be in the Stalin solar system.'"

The UNAVA has been cited as a communist front "to provoke racial friction" by the Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee in its Handbook for Americans, dated April 23, 1956.

The November, 1946, issue of "Fraternal Outlook" contains an article and a photograph of Jackie Robinson in

HARLEM PICKETS SWITCH TACTICS

Threaten a Demonstration Against Jackie Robinson

A Negro group, led by a Black Nationalist, shifted its protest tactics yesterday away from a white business man to Jackie D. Robinson, the former Brooklyn Dodger star.

The Negroes dropped plans to demonstrate against a proposed steakhouse in Harlem when they learned that the white proprietor planned to pull out.

But they threatened to picket today against a Chock Full O' Nuts restaurant at 125th Street and Seventh Avenue because Mr. Robinson had criticized them for anti-Semitic slogans used in protests against the white man.

Despite their threat, Mr. Robinson, who is a vice president of Chock Full O' Nuts, refused to withdraw comments that appeared in The New York Amsterdam News on Thursday.

In his newspaper column, Mr. Robinson said Negro pickets had chanted such slogans as "Black man must stay; Jew must go" while demonstrating against the proposed restaurant.

'Matter of Principle'

"All my life we have been fighting against this same thing as it applies to the Negro," Mr. Robinson said yesterday. "I won't retract something like this. It is a matter of principle. Black supremacy is just as bad as white supremacy."

The dispute revolves around plans by Sol Singer, a white restaurateur, to open a steakhouse next door to the Apollo Theatre in a choice section of 125th Street between Seventh and Eighth Avenues.

The Harlem Consumers Committee, led by Lewis Michaux, has picketed against the steakhouse off and on for three weeks. The group had asserted that Mr. Singer planned to force a near-by Negro-operated restaurant, Lloyd's Steakhouse, out of business.

Mr. Michaux, who calls himself an African Nationalist and wears a gold-trimmed, black velvet fez, had threatened to resume picketing yesterday unless he was given assurance that Mr. Singer would withdraw.

Mr. Michaux's colleagues said their lawyer had informed them that Mr. Singer intended to pull out.

However, Mr. Singer said in a telephone interview yesterday that he was leaving town to check with his financial backers about the venture. He said he had already invested $90,000 in restaurant improvements and was reluctant to absorb such a loss. He has offered to sell out to Negro business men but has had no offers.

that, in his judgment, the hiring of Jackie Robinson improved the racial attitude of hundreds of thousands of sports lovers in this country.

He stated, As I see it there has been a terrific lot of misunderstanding on this subject of communism among the Negroes in this country, and it's bound to hurt my people's cause unless it is cleared up.----"

"And one other thing the American people ought to understand, if we are to make progress in this matter: The fact that it is a communist who denounces injustice in the courts, police brutality, and lynching when it happens doesn't change the truth of his charges. Just because communists kick up a big fuss over racial discrimination when it suits their purposes, a lot of people try to pretend that the whole issue is a creation of communist imagination.

"But they are not fooling anyone with this kind of pretense, and talk about 'communists stirring up Negroes to protest', only makes present misunderstanding worse than ever. Negroes were stirred up long before there was a Communist Party, and they'll stay stirred up long after the Party has disappeared--unless Jim Crow has disappeared by then as well.

"I've been asked to express my views on Paul Robeson's statement in Paris to the effect that American Negroes would refuse to fight in any war against Russia because we love Russia so much. I haven't any comment to make on that statement except that if Mr. Robeson actually made it, it sounds very silly to me. But he has a right to his personal views, and if he wants to sound silly when he expresses them in public, that is his business and not mine. He's still a famous ex-athlete and a great singer and actor.

"I understand that there are some few Negroes who are members of the Communist Party, and in the event of war with Russia they'd probably act just as any other communist would. So would members of other minority and majority groups. There are some colored pacifists, and they'd act just like pacifists of any color. And most Negroes--and Italians and Irish and Jews and Swedes and Slavs and other Americans--would act just as all these groups did in the last war. They'd do their best to keep their country out of war; if successful, they'd do their best to help their country win the war--against Russia or any other enemy that threatened us. This isn't said as any defense of the Negro's loyalty, because any loyalty that needs defense can't amount to much in the long run. And no one has ever questioned my race's loyalty except a few people who don't amount to very much.

"What I'm trying to get across is that the American public is off on the wrong feet when it begins to think of radicalism in terms of any special minority group. It is thinking of this sort that gets people scared because one Negro, speaking to a communist group in Paris, threatens an organized boycott by 15,000,000 members of his race.

"I can't speak for any 15,000,000 people any more than any other one person can, but I know that I've got too much invested for my wife and child and myself in the future of this country, and I and other Americans of many races and faiths have too much invested in our country's welfare, for any of us to throw it away because of a siren song sung in bass. I am a religious man. Therefore I cherish America where I am free to worship as I please, a privilege which some countries do not give. And I suspect that 999 out of almost any thousand colored Americans you meet will tell you the same thing.

"But that doesn't mean that we're going to stop fighting race discrimination in this country until we've got it licked. It means that we're going to fight it all the harder because our stake in the future is so big. We can win our fight without the communists and we don't want their help."

Re: Jackie Robinson, Stamford, Connecticut CONFIDENTIAL

He stated he attended U.C.L.A., and that he took his grade and high school work at Pasadena.

He was asked if, in his school life, he ever noted any attitude on the part of members of his race that would give any support to the alleged statement of Mr. Robeson.

He replied that he had never run across it any time.

He was asked if he had ever been approached to join any of the subversive organizations.

He replied that he was never approached but, when he was a kid, "we" were interested in the way "they" acted to get "us" to join. Young ladies were sent out to see if he and others would join their organization (CP in Pasadena). He said he and the others had enough sense to know what "they" were after, and none of the fellows in his group had any desire to join an organization like that.

Jackie Still Has Doubts

Jackie Robinson

J. Edgar Hoover

"I always thought J. Edgar Hoover should be down on his hands and knees blessing Martin Luther King, for if it had not been for King, there would have been bloody race riots. King in a way was doing the FBI job."

This was the view Friday of Baseball Hall of fame great, Jackie Robinson. The former Brooklyn Dodger was to have been in Detroit to address the annual dinner meeting of the United Church men of Detroit at Faith Lutheran Church, East Jefferson and Philip, but was grounded in New York because of the weather. He gave his remarks in a phone interview. Methodist Bishop Dwight Loder was the last minute substitute for Robinson.

Robinson, first Negro to play in the major leagues, is president of the 10-million-member United Church Men, a wing of the National Council of Churches.

He pictured Hoover as an old man out of step with the 60's "because he says he is basically a states righter."

"This is a tragic mistake. He's got to take a real look at himself."

Hoover was roundly criticized recently for reportedly old man out of step with the calling integrationist leader King "a liar." They have met since, and the outcome was "amicable," if not enthusiastic.

SHOULD HOOVER resign?
"I don't know," said Robinson. "That has to be determined by Hoover and President Johnson."

"I don't think much will happen. Things will lay dormant, and he will go on being Mr. Hoover."

He said the Negro community held no grudges against Hoover and would forgive any conflict with King. However, Robinson said, "he will need to demonstrate vigorous action and get his people really to go into court and say what they know."

FORMERLY a vice president of a national restaurant chain, Robinson revealed that he has resigned and beginning this week becomes chairman of the board of the new Freedoms National Bank, on 125th and Eighth Avenue in New York City.

He urged Detroit laymen to back their pastors in civil rights efforts. "Laymen cannot do their job unless they have the backing of the laity."

"They must get off the side lines. Extending a hand is of no value unless they participate."
